“ Uncle val was one of the sweetest uncles . I will always remember him calling Aunty Helen honey & he & Danny in the bedroom on ham radios. The family ancestry book he put together of the family is such a special work of art . He didn't leave a soul out. My kids always loved his colorful clothes and leisure suits. Sweet Rayna talks about her 100 year old uncle val❤️. RIP to a wonderful man . Patti ,Tina and your families treasure your memories. Love you all.

“ Norman Kukuk (my father) grew up with the Sykes Family in Pilsen and developed a life long friendship with Ray (Red), John and Esther. We'd meet Val and John every year at New Melleray Abbey. Val would point out celestial bodies in the clear lowan nights. He held our attention for hours. Very bright, very intelligent and kind-hearted man. Our condolences to the entire Sykes Family.
