“ Cesar Luyo posted a condolence Mr. Bonat was one of the few mentors I had when I first came to the United States; I worked for him for a little over a year before I enlisted in the Marines in 1991. After I retired from the Marines in 2014, I looked for Victor, Barbara, and Jim but was not able to locate them - I wanted to invite them to my retirement ceremony because they were the first ones that gave me a chance when I came to the U.S. and wanted to thank them personally for all they did for me.
I will always remember Mr. Bonat's smile, sense of humor, and work ethic. Thank you "Mr. Vic" for always having the right words or for bringing up a smile when it was needed the most.
"Ms. Barb", please accept my deepest condolences; if there is anything I can do for you, all you have to do is ask.

“ Phyllis Riccelli posted a condolence The world lost a truly wonderful gentleman when we lost Victor Bonat. He was truly one of a kind. If you asked for advice, he'd share his wisdom, if encouragement was needed, he'd give it until you achieved, if you just needed to sit, talk and laugh, he was the go to man. I've been blessed to call him my friend. My love and prayers are with his devoted Barb, his loving children Gretchen, Christian, Trevor and their beautiful families, including his dedicated brothers and sister. Phyllis

“ Leslie Simon posted a condolence I lived next door to the Bonats and his daughter Gretchen was my best friend. He was like a second father to me. He was always teaching us things and was a strong believer in great education. He was always kind, loving and funny. I will always remember him in his big red leather chair laughing about something. He was an incredible man. He was very much loved by our entire family. Hugs to Barbara, Gretchen, Christian and Trevor. Leslie Simon(Tedd)

“ Frank Loria posted a condolence Mr Bonat was one of the greatest men in my life. He was a role model to me (who needed one) as a young boy for many reasons-loving and devoted husband and father, man with great faith in God, an intellectual who had a constant curiosity, charitable in the true sense of giving of himself, fun loving and adventure seeking, an amazing business man, and just a really cool dude. The memory of his hearty laugh makes me smile. Mrs Bonat, Gretchen, Christian, and Trevor thank you for treating me as a member of your family as a kid and to share in the life that VLB provided. His influence on me impacts me every single day of my life as a man and I am thankful for him. Love to you all.
