“ I would have posted earlier had I known about this. I belatedly send my deepest heartfelt condolences to Vikas’s family. I had known him as a friend from way back to our Tampa Sunday School days and then again at UT. Words don’t do Justice to how tragic this loss is. RIP, friend.

“ We are sadden and heartbroken with this terrific news. I still remember the humor and smile when I first time met him here in Johns Creek, GA almost 5 years ago. He was cheerful, loving individual that we all are going to miss forever. We met him almost 3 weeks ago when he visited here Atlanta and had lot of talks with lot of humors and can't believe he is not with us anymore, Vikas will live in our heart for forever. Our deepest condolences to entire family.

“ Our deepest heartfelt condolences to the Brar Family on this irreplaceable loss. May the Divine shower Grace on the Brar Family with strength and wisdom to endure this eternal reality. Vikas was a very loving, caring and sweet person full of many virtues. Our best memories of Vikas are him taking total interest in Shabad Kirtan and then understanding the message of Gurbani at the Tampa Gurdwara every Sunday in a small group chat. May the Divine Shabad in Granth Sahib guide the minds of the family and all to navigate through these times and the future. Vikas will be missed by many whom he touched with his love and many virtues!

“ Vikas and I started together from college at PPHB in January 2006. Over the next years we worked a ton but also hung out after hours. We were big buddies and matured a lot during that period of life. He introduced me to temple and reminded me to not to take life too seriously.

He was a good man and was well liked by all at PPHB.

Thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ I have so many fond memories of Vikas. Driving Ajit and I to school singing and dancing. Obsessed with his cowboy boots and trying to wear them to Ajit's wedding. Being so sweet and kind to my little girl. He was always so full of joy, love, and laughter. It is impossible to think of him and not smile. I will treasure these memories forever and hope these memories will help bring the family comfort in time. Love to you all
