

Vina J. Brock

January 3, 1935 - December 6, 2015

We will mourn the loss of Vina J. Brock, who lived a full & diverse life, passing away Sunday December 6th 2015 at the age of 80. She will be leaving behind her daughter Pamela, and her two siblings, Melvin and Elva.

Vina had many successes as well as interests in her life. She graduated from the Prestigious Midway School in Kentucky. She then married Lindell Brock and became a devoted wife and mother of their only child Pamela, while living in Maryland. She enjoyed many interests ranging from painting to playing piano.

Her husband acquired his MBA at Washington University... and together, along with their daughter, began their own business in Data Processing. The business grew over a 20 year period with nearly 90 employees. And for all of her successes she was also challenged with health issues, surviving cancer twice, and then finally Parkinson's Disease.

She will be missed and remembered by the things she loved: weekends at their Lake House, Boating, a Die-Hard Football Fan, Chesapeake Bay Crab-cakes, as well as her extensive hat collection, earning her the name of Hat-Lady.

“ From my earliest memories, I wanted to be like Aunt Vina. In my eyes, she was perfect. Perfectly dressed - (to the nines), perfectly spoken, and perfectly mannered. She was the definition of "ladylike." She leaves me with beautiful memories, (many include shopping). I'm grateful she was in my life and that my children were able to know her. I am so sorry for not being able to attend her service, but please know her light will be carried on in my heart. Pam, my prayers of strength and comfort to you. Much Love from Pittsburgh,
Dianne, Rob, Robbie, Emily, and Matthew.
