“ So sad to lose a "gem"..Vince and I were best buddies at age 9,10,11. In Miami on W Flager st. I would go to his house every week to stuff ourselves with spaghetti and meat balls. His Mom with her curley black hair and his "pop" with his big nose and gray hair and sister Angela of course. After eating Vince would get his accordion and play the"tik toc" polka. A few months ago I said to Vince " did you ever think in your wildwest dreams that we would share our friend ship over 50 yrs ? He replied, as only he could, " I love you my friend but you are not in my wildest dreams" Well, there you have it...we would trade jokes all the time. I told Vince that when he goes thru the pearly gates to heaven..save me a seat so we can continue our friendship. Rest in peace my brother...you did it your way. Atta Boy. I found a letter from Vince dated 1954 to my now wife, Barbara, telling her how much he loved her. I still haven,t figured that one ???.. There is more but.....God Bless Beth !!
