“ I have so many fond memories of Vinod Uncle, my conversations with him, his advice to me, every interaction left an impact. At one time around the time I had finished college, he was very keen that I left India and came with him to the US. I visited Orlando in 1990 and stayed with Masi and Vinod Uncle for a few weeks. He made sure that we had the most fabulous vacation. Over the last few years we had a few conversations on the phone. He never let on about his ailment. Will miss him deeply. Lots of love dear Aditi, Anjali, vivek and Varun. Pray for strength and Solace to the entire family. Tunu

“ Vinod was always full of life and a pleasure to be with. His radio program "manoranjan" also reflected this. Even in the most trying times he found humor and always pushed forward. He will dearly missed by family and friends.

I will pray for the peace of his soul in its journey forward as it reunites with his beloved wife Kusum in heaven.

Sincere condolences to the immediate and extended family and grieving friends 🙏🕯️🙏🕯️

“ His emails were dotted with humour. I could hear him speak as I read them.
Speaking to him on the phone was simply "manoranjan". He'd suddenly break into a song, or an impromptu shayari :)
On our visit to Orlando, when he announced the arrival of "his little sister from Bombay" on Manoranjan, we went crazzzzyy with excitement, haha...
That how I want to remember him. With the joy and laughter that he always invoked.
Bless you bhaiya, I wish you peace on your onward journey, as you reunite with Your beloved Kusum.
Om Shanti.

“ I met Vinod first time in 1985 on Diwali function in Eastmonte park in Altamonte Springs. I was the organizer for the program. Vinod approached me to come to the stage to address the audience. He had an excellent command on speaking and inborn talent to recite Urdu poetry. He was par excellent as a Master of ceremonies. We had a common interest of Urdu Gazals & Poetry. That was a great bond between us. Orlando had lost “ Ameer Siyani” of Radio program in his death. May God provide eternal peace to his soul. Om Shanti!
