“ Dear Chris, Tollie, Donna and Kim,
It was so great to have spent some time with Aunt Viola last February during her birthday celebration. She was such a loving family lady and a reminder of how we should all value our families. I know that all of us Youmans family members will miss her honesty and love.

My thought is that she, Mary Youmans, Mrs. Frank, Helen Scott and Mary Mims have already completed a couple of shopping trips (I wish that we had a video!) and that she and Uncle Dickie have reunited in their love!

Love to you all,
Brooks and Nonie Youmans

“ Finally after twenty years my mother, Mary Skinner Youmans has all her travel buddies together again. Helen Skinner Scott, Mary Mims, and Nellie Frank. Viola had to be last because she was the infamous trunk organizer! What a great life she lived having all her family living so close. We all know who ran the "Ponderosa" as so many of us called their homestead. I never have seen a closer bond between and mother-in-law and daughter-in-law as with Viola and Donna. Viola was blessed to have her as a "daughter". Everyone will miss her but my mother has her sister and best friend with her forever.
