She was devoted to her family and her chapter and spent most of her retired life traveling to visit with her family. Her love for her family, faith in God and selfishness was unmeasurable. She will be truly missed by everyone she touched in her lifetime. She has her wings now and is singing and dancing with family and friends in Heaven. Please believe.....! Due to the current pandemic, a graveside service will be held at Woodlawn Cemetery, in Detroit at a later time! In lieu of flowers, the family humbly request that donations be made in Violet's memory to either Dementia Society of America, <https://www.dementia.org> dementiasociety.org or Alzheimer's Association for a possible cure for these horrific conditions! The DeGusipe Funeral Home has been entrusted with her arrangements.

“ COVID has certainly changed our lives and methods of doing things. My precious mother died two years ago (thankfully not Covid-related) and usually I would have transported her remains to Detroit immediately. But due to the circumstances of Covid I have had to delay this. So we are flying to Detroit to have an informal graveside service on May 7, 2022 at Woodlawn Cemetery at 1pm , almost two years to the day she went to Heaven. If you read this and are in the area, you are more than welcome to attend! May God bless and keep you safely in His arms!!

“ Sister Lambert will always hold a special place in my heart. Since my days of growing up as a child of the Order of the Eastern Star until I joined Redeemerette Chapter #54, she always greeted me with a smile and uplifting words. After I became a chapter leader, including historian, she shared priceless insights and archival materials with me. Both my mother, Allean H. House, and I extend deepest sympathy and condolences to Beatrice Davis and all others who cherish the memory of a dear lady. -- Sis. Darlene House, PM

“ Memory of Sis. Lambert, Past Marton of Redeemerette Chapter No. 54

I came into the Chapter in 2011 and met Sis. Lambert and boy was she sharp in the knowledge of the Order. She encouraged me along this journey. I will truly miss checking on her. Thank you, Beatrice Davis for sharing your mom with the members of Redeemerette Chapter No. 54 Order of the Eastern Star.
