“ Violet was a wonderful person and at one time my sister-in-law. I saw her last in 2014, when my daughter, Cindy and I drove to Orlando to visit her. She was a sweet and beautiful woman who will be missed so very much. I want to send my love to her children and loved ones. She will be missed so much.

It is with a heavy heart that I go through the next week. I know my other family Barbara, Ann and Steve Schanbacher have to deal with the loss of their mother. Violet Schanbacher who passed away this last Tuesday evening. Both Mr and Mrs. Schanbacher were more or less my adopted parnets which loved with all my heart. To the extended family I grieve with you and offer my love and support!
