“ Vickie - caring person posted a condolence I am deeply sorry for your loss. I'm reaching out with some encouragement as I too have lost many loved ones in death. One thing that has helped me to cope many times is a promise made by in the Bible at Acts 24:15. Here it says that we can have a "hope toward God" for He promises that "there is going to be a resurrection." What a comfort to have "a hope of the everlasting life that God, who cannot lie, promised long ago." (Titus 1:2) Another comforting Scripture is Psalms 37:29. It speaks of world conditions under God's Kingdom rule. It says: "The righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it." A most reassuring promise indeed! I hope these verses comfort you as they have comforted me. My heart and prayers go out to you.
