“ Debbie Miller - Daughter In Law posted a condolence With being recently married, I hadn't had the chance to meet Virginia. Whenever Greg would talk about his mom, there was a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye. I only had to listen to him to hear how much love he always had for his mom and family. One of my first memories of knowing Greg was that he had just gotten back from ordering flowers for Mother's Day for his dear mom. I wish I could have had a chance to meet her, but with her loving husband and family, her legend will live on. God Bless!
