“ It was 1980 and I was at a Prince George tennis tournament. I was playing mixed doubles with a girl named Cathy Ball from PGHS. I saw Aunt Vondra there. She was there to see B.J. Bogese. I went and spoke to her and tell her hello. She said to me, "Bruce, there are not many teenagers who would come up to there 'old' aunt to say hello. That wouldn't be cold, but YOU did, thank you." I have remembered this all my life. It has made a great impact on me and helped me respect all people a little more. Aunt Vondra lived a great life.

“ I got to be a neighbor for a few years in Apopka. She was always so sweet and I loved to see her hand out candy to the kids on Halloween when we all sat in our driveway. She would get so happy seeing the kids in their costumes. I can still here her giggle.
