My deepest condolences to your wife Tina and the rest of your loved ones. Wally my childhood friend, such great memories, many good times at birthday parties, church events and just overall playing outside on the block, on Throop Ave, Brooklyn. You had a great smile as a young boy and I am saddened to say we never got an opportunity to catch up later in life, but I know you are smiling down at your family and friends and saying I'm good! God Blessings always!
