

Walter Hawthorne

February 13, 2010

Walter Hawthorne, Sr. passed away at 71 years old on February 13, 2010 at his home. He was a Navy Veteran and retired Philadelphia Police Officer. He was a Philadelphia native, but retired in St. Petersburg, Florida. He was preceded in death by his wife, Rita Hawthorne and his son, John Hawthorne. He is survived by his eleven loving children, Walter Jr., James, Kimberly, William, Frank, Andrew, Brian, Jennifer, Daniel, Christopher, Eileen and his son-in-law, Vaxe, daughter-in-law, Bonnie, daughter-in-law, Kelly, his companion Penny, and many loving grandchildren.

He was such a happy, funny and loving person who enjoyed football and spending time with his family.

His spirit lives on and always will. Times he laughed, gave advice, or just listened, echo in the memories of those whose lives he touched. And in being so remembered his legacy will live on forever. May it comfort everyone who knew him that death cannot diminish the important ways he has touched our lives and that grief cannot take away the good times we shared, that sorrow will fade in time “ Jennifer Lorevil - Daughter posted a condolence Dad, My biggest regret is not telling you in depth the extent of my appreciation for having you in my life. I can not be greedy keeping you here when John needs company in Heaven, but just know that I will miss you every second of every day and that your grandbabies will grow up knowing how amazing of a person your are. I love you always.
