“ Wilma and family- It was our good fortune to have Walter as a kind and caring next-door neighbor. He was an incredible family man who was always eager to share a story about his sons, grandsons, and most recent trip. I will remember him enjoying the eclipse from the front yard, the launches from the backyard and all our friendly conversations. His always positive attitude and generous spirit combined with his wonderful smile will be missed. We are here if you need us.- Barbara and Joyce
