

Warren Jay Gould Jr.

March 29, 1949 - December 8, 2016

Warren “Gator” Jay Gould, Jr, age 67, of Baldwin Park, formerly of Milford, CT has passed at Florida Hospital – Orlando on 12/8/16.

Warren was born on 3/29/49 in New Haven, CT to late Warren Gould, Sr and Elsie Scholz Gould. He is survived by his wife, Beth Andino Gould, only daughter, Kimberly A. Gould of Connecticut, brothers Carl, Mark, and Dennis, brother-in-law, Percie, sister-in-laws, Evelyn, Vangie, Malou, Kathy, and Cindy, parents-in law, Rody and Naning, best friends, Peter and Carolyn, and numerous nieces and nephews.

He retired from Subway Headquarters last year after working there for 8 years as an Auditor, then moved to Orlando on January 2016. Among his many professions, he was a business owner most of his life, a realtor / instructor, and UPS driver.

Warren loved to read, travel and was a serious foodie, who would try all different kinds of restaurants and then rate them based on the experience. He loved to go on cruises with his wife of 31 years. Their most recent trip was a cruise “Across The Pond,” which he enjoyed tremendously. He led an amazing, interesting and content life, despite some health issues.

He was the most optimistic, smart, caring dude with a wealth of information.

It's just amazing what he knew. He was very well-versed on many topics, whether it was politics and geography. He loved the New England Patriots and keeping track of the stock market.

Warren was taken away from us too soon but he's with God now, strong and healthy. Fly away my Superhero, my man of steel. Rest in peace our love... you will always be in our hearts and thoughts forever... until we meet again. We love you to the moon and back.

His memorial service and viewing will be held at DeGusipe Funeral Home at 9001 N. Orlando Avenue, Maitland, FL 32751 on Thursday, December 15, 2016 from 5 to 7 pm.
