

Warren C. Tucker Jr.

January 12, 1930 - October 26, 2016

Warren C. (Nick) Tucker Jr. passed away on October 26, 2016. He was 86 years old, having been born on January 12, 1930 in Utica, NY. He resided in Winter Park, FL.

After starting as a Personal Lines Underwriter at Utica Mutual Insurance Co, he became a Multiple Lines Underwriter and was transferred to the branch in Atlanta, GA. Then he met and married Mildred Garrett. That union resulted in one daughter, Suzanne Conway.

Nick also worked for Iowa National Mutual Insurance Co in Orlando, FL. He volunteered in the ER at Florida Hospital and also at the Orlando Little Theater, helping to build stage sets as well as doing lighting for all the plays. His favorite volunteer job was at Disney, driving golfers, their families and caddies to the first tee at the Disney Golf Tournaments. Meeting various players and getting free tickets to the Magic Kingdom made his day. He also enjoyed bowling and fishing.

Nick is survived by his daughter Suzanne Conway, former spouse Mildred Tucker-Gainer, sister Joanne Miller, brother-in-law Kent Miller, nieces Julie and Joelle Miller and nephew, Geoffrey Miller.

There will be a family service at a later date.

Rest in peace, Dad. You are loved.
