“ Wendy, as I knew her, gave me many gifts. We went back to High School in Naples, Fl, and First Presbyterian Church of the same time. Besides her friendship and zest for life, her last greatest gift to me was continuing to share her views with me no matter how many times we clashed. I didn't find this anywhere else, and will forever treasure that gift. Wendy, be at peace in God.

“ Estimada familia Nieve lamento mucho la perdida y el dolor por el que están pasando pero quisiera compartir con ustedes una esperanza muy consoladora que se encuentra en la palabra de Dios ,la Biblia, en (Hechos 24:15) allí encontramos la promesa de que dentro de poco volveremos a ver a nuestros seres queridos que están descansando en la muerte. Espero que estas palabras les sirvan de consuelo.

“ Joe, I am so sorry to hear about Wendy's death. I know she fought the hard fight to be better. Such a joy to know here even if only briefly she will forever be remembered by me for sure. I pray the Lord will grant you strength and peace. I will miss Wendy's many e-mails and her joy and laughter. Carol Stoltenberg from the Crafty Quilters Group

Wendy brought joy and talent to our Tuesday morning Crafty Quilters. She was always up beat and encouraging to others despite her own challenges. Wendy will be missed. God be with you an extra measure as you go through these very difficult times.
