Whitney my dear friend who never forgot a birthday or holiday card ..I miss you sooo much ... I left Orlando in 2008 and it was hell trying to help a sick friend that isn't a good person like you and I finally got to your house in 2019 I looked down and I saw a little sandals that look like something you'd wear in a little dog bowl and I thought oh she still has Zachary the car looks similar to the one she drove and I was proud of myself for finding this home and a girl answered I was so excited cuz it had been so many years and I was so sad to hear that she had passed from today's the first time I was able to find something available on internet I can hardly believe its been ten years since you passed .I had so much to celebrate with you what I survivedwe had lost touch after I moved from Orlando I'm really really too miss you my dear friend !!!

There was NEVER a dog that didn't love Whit! She was amazing with them! Zachary was the reason we got a dachshund! He was awesome..and they loved eachother so much! Whitney will never be forgotten! She was such a wonderful friend..and confidant! I will always think of her and smile!! Prayers to your family in this terrible time.

My dear Whitneytoday is the first day I've seen this.. you were such a dear friend never forgetting a birthday or Christmas ...we lost touch when I left Orlando in 2008 ...I think our last pictures together are march that year ... I had survived so much after I left and so looked forward to reuniting and celebrating life .. I was in Orlando for about six months 2019 staying near your house and so proud of myself of finding it...I still can visualize yer address on lynbrook I believe from the stickers you used for return address ...apon arrival with 115 in mind ..or close

.. I saw car , similar to what you had, December plates ..yes must be it ...at door ..

Little black sandals exactly as you'd wear , and a little dog bowl

I thought awe she still has Zachary ... I knocked and so excited as a woman around your age answered but not you... She told me you had lived there but passed ... I was so sad and in tears walking awayI miss you girl ..it's still surreal ..just saw yer pics today on this ...

“ *Ann, Richard, Christine and Family,
I remember Whitney as this precious child with the big brown eyes and angelic smile. She captured your heart the moment you saw her. Now she once again has found the Peace for which she was searching.
My thoughts and prayers are will you all.*

*Love,
