“ I was able to work with Bill over the past year and a half and I have never had the opportunity to work with someone more positive and knowledgeable about business and life. I'm forever grateful for everything that I learned from him over our time together and he will be sorely missed by everyone he worked with.

“ We will always remember the years we were a big part of CUMC youth group. That is when we spent our time together, as parents of teenagers. Thinking of Bill reminds us of these days of Sunday night youth group, dinners together, game nights, work trips, rummage collection and sale.... wonderful, fond memories. May he rest in peace in our Father's kingdom.
