

William R. "Bill" Cook

January 1, 2020

William R. (Bill) Cook 87 went to be with the Lord Friday, August 14, 2020 at Dolphin View Rehab. He was born in Van Buren, Kentucky July 25, 1933 and grew up in Crestwood, Kentucky. He and his wife, Joy, were married 66 years. He retired from Chevron Oil Co. and moved to St. Petersburg from Concord, California in 1986. He served in the US Army from 1954 to 1956.

He is survived by his wife, Joy, and sisters, Polly (Josh) Jocelyn of Dayton, Ohio and Betty Hornbeck of Greenfield, Indiana. Also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

He loved the Lord. Until his health began to fail he was very active in church, he served as a deacon and was currently a member of Clearview Baptist Church. He collected books on religion and WW II, Country and Gospel music and oil company memorabilia. He and Joy loved to travel and visited all 50 states and many foreign countries.

Funeral Services will be private.

“ Cathy Fleck posted a condolence I remember years ago visiting my Uncle Bill and Aunt Joy when they lived in Concord. He reminded me so much of my Dad who was his older brother, and who we lost in 1972. His mannerisms were so similar. It brought so much comfort to me knowing my Dads little brother was there. I didn't get to spend a lot of time with him over the years because we lived so far away but he was always a favorite. The last time we saw him was when we got to visit with him and Aunt Joy at their home in St. Petersburg. We had a wonderful visit. I know he is in heaven with my Dad, his parents and all his siblings that went before him. I love you Uncle Bill. Give my love to my Dad.
