

William J. Daw

April 30, 2015

William J. Daw, III, of St. Petersburg, FL., passed away on October 17, 2007 at home surrounded by his family. He was born on September 11, 1932 in Wilkes-Barre, PA., son of the late Dr. William J. Daw and Alice Johnson Daw. He was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, PA. and Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre, PA. where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. Prior to his retirement, Bill was self-employed in the landscaping field in the Tampa-St. Petersburg area. He was a member of the Seminole Methodist Church and was involved with the Mens Club. Bill was also an active member of all Masonic Bodies in the St. Petersburg area, including Blue Lodge, the Consistory and the Temple. He was a U.S. Navy Veteran, having served during the Korean Conflict.

Bill was an avid motorcyclist and was a member of the St. Petersburg Goldwing Group of fellow enthusiasts.

He is survived by his loving wife, Joyce Crews Daw at home, sons William J., IV and Brian R., both of St. Petersburg, sister Mariellen Daw Fine, Dallas, PA, step-daughter, Stephanie Lauster, Largo, FL, step-son Rick Moore, Beverly Hills, FL. Also surviving are several nieces, nephews, grandchildren and three great grandchildren. A memorial service will be held on October 24, 2007 at Bay Pines Cemetery at 2:15PM. Services will be conducted by Chaplain Jim Andrews and the American Legion 273, Madiera Beach. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The Hospice of Florida Suncoast, 5771 Roosevelt Blvd., Clearwater, FL 33760

“ Dave / AKA: Grumpy - Friend posted a condolence "Crusher", is how I remember him. We all had nicknames, He gave me mine and I have been Grumpy ever since. We were The Directors of The FLORIDA GULF COAST CHAPTER OF HOG in 1994. It was a great year. We had a lot of Good Times. We were both strong willed and didn't always see eye to eye, even that was fun. I will always hold him dear to my heart. He was a Mentor, Big Brother, My Friend. I am so sorry he is gone, Part of me goes with him.

“ Frank Ankner - Old Friend posted a condolence Condolences to the family of Bill Daw. Bill was an usher at my wedding on February 1, 1958 in Kingston Pa. I have not seen Bill for many years but I remember he was a good pal and friend. I know he is in Heaven as my wife Mary is; she passed away on March 6, 2003. Praise be to God and His Son Jesus Christ for that Blessed Assurance.
