“ Uncle Bill loved and treasured family and spent time nurturing those relationships. Birthday and Christmas celebrations were some of the best gatherings. I'll never forget the bass fish gag gift that made it through several rounds of Secret Santa through the years. He would also invite us out to pick tons of delicious grapefruits from their trees. Wishing there was more time, but we are all grateful for the precious time we did share. All the Atwells are sending prayers and comfort for all his loved ones. Love, Julie Atwell
