“ Bill and I were not only Brother-in-Laws, but the best of friends. I have know Bill since he was 12 years old. I started dating his sister when I was 16. We were friends all of our lives. After my retirement from the Army and then the FAA in Alaska, we moved to FL in 2000. It was then that Bill and I started spending a lot of time together fishing, boating and just hanging out as good friends do. I loved him as a Brother. I got to know Bill as a very loving, caring and generous individual. He loved his children and grand children and talked and bragged of them often. He loved people. And, people loved him. He was the type of person that “never met a stranger.” He never had a bad thing to say about anyone. He gave of himself freely to anyone who needed help or assistance. He was a devoted and caring son, father, uncle, brother, and in-law. He was taken too early. God must have needed another Angel in Heaven. I will miss him.... Rest in Peace my brother.

“ Bill is my uncle, his sister Nancy is my Mother. He was the fun uncle, always joking and playing tricks on us. I remember growing up and going fishing with him and my cousins. He could always make us laugh but also put us in our place just as quick. The past few years we got closer than ever. He would call and just say hi or see how I was doing, especially after all my health issues or when we got hit by the Moore tornado a couple years ago. We would talk and reminisce about everything. He told me how proud he was of me, that I grew up to be such a generous and loving person. I never knew that and it made me cry. I was blessed to spend time with him this past January after he was told the cancer had spread. I knew it would be the last time I saw him and wanted to spend as much time with him as possible. With everything he was going through, he still was concerned about me and was always asking if my back was ok. He knew I had severe back pain and was more worried about me instead. I love him dearly and will miss him so very much. God speed Uncle Bill! ”
