May 29, 2012

William A. Trischka, 83, beloved father and husband. He was a master shipbuilder, craftsman, roller skater, scrap metal recycler, and avid fan of classical music. He thoroughly enjoyed eating large quantities of food and was especially fond of Coney Island Chilidogs and McDonald's Sausage Egg McMuffins with an extra round of egg. He leaves behind his loving wife of 53 years, Janet; daughters: Edith Lanuzga (Eduardo), Laura Ruffner (Daniel), son: Steven Trischka (Maureen); grandchildren: Sister M. Christiana, Allan Lanuzga (Megan), Susie, Michael and Rachel; beloved cats: Princess and Teddy; many friends, waitresses and acquaintances whose lives he has touched over the years. We will all greatly miss his generosity, sense of humor and famous sayings.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Saturday, June 2 from 5 P.M. until service time at 7 P.M. Interment will be later at Sunnyside Cemetery.

“ Steven Trischka - son posted a condolence Dad!(Pops!), We sure had a lot of good times in the mountains, playing golf, years of steak n eggs at Kissin Kuzzins, "stuffing our guts" at Coney Island, and our many lunches (Always included your famous lines that left unsuspecting servers off guard), treating my family to Olive Garden! Thanks for helping me with car repair bills and picking up the bill at restaurants so often. Thank you for helping Michael earn two Pinewood Derby trophies and giving Susie that special pink chair (She keeps it at the foot of her bed occupied by her stuffed animals). Thank you Dad and Mom for spoiling Susie and Michael on their Birthdays and Christmas! Thank you for all the tools you have given me! I will keep studying the Woodworking book you gifted me so that I can build on the basic skills I have learned from you. You are finally safe from all the Feederbands (Not sure about the owls...They may have some up there.) I miss you everyday Dad! I Love you! Steve

“ Don Niemann - Friend posted a condolence I always enjoyed my visits, which were many, with Bill, Janet and assorted dogs and cats. I always found Bill interesting and interested in something. He was a good man, hard working and honest. People like him will always be missed. God Bless.
