Fishing

Have you ever dreamed of being out in the ocean Fishing? If Willie had a choice he would have lived on the water just so he could get up early grab his tackle box, fishing pole and enjoy the morning fishing.

His friend, Charlie would say Good eating. Then Charlie fell on top of the Beer cooler, smashing all the beer. Without a hesitation Willie was so angry he pushed Charlie into the water.

The only thing they could do is laugh and laugh.

Quick as a Rabbit

One day in the park Willie and Juny saw a rabbit. Willie wanted to see if he could catch it then in a matter of seconds he had the rabbit caught. Of course with no intention to harm it but to see if he could be faster.

Willie had a good heart for animals. When he saw an injured bird he would care for it until it was back to good health and then he would let it go.

An animal lover he was.

Cool Willie

One day Willie was invited to play basketball with his brothers. He was given the ball and took it to the opposite side. We thought this was something we would see only on TV bloopers. However, we found out that this runs in the family his sister Nilda did the same thing and she scored for the opposite team.

Camping with Willie

Road trip with Ray was an experience. Willie went to Washington with his brother to go camping. He was supposed to wake Ray up because they had propane on the camper. However, they needed to take another route due to the propane.

Willie forgot to wake up Ray before they got to the tunnel. All of a sudden there were police cars surrounding the camper. Ray woke up to a number of police officers and asked Willie what happened?

Willie's only remark was "Man, I forgot to wake you up".

Happy to say they were able to continue their trip.

Green Thumb Willie

Willie enjoyed planting with his daughters and grand-children. They would plant anything from gandules, avocados, peppers and tomatoes. Once Green Thumb Willie was done those vegetables, and plants would grow and grow.

When he visited his sister Selin he would help her take the coconuts off the tree and of course sat back and enjoyed drinking and eating the coconut.

Even with all his ailments Norma, his wife would help him so he could continue to do the things he loved.

Free Willie

With all the ailments that Willie had which progressively got worse. It is now time for us to Free Willie.

He will be missed by us all. Willie will live on in our memories and in our hearts. We know that he will no longer suffer with pain he is now at peace. God has a special place for him with his talents of plants and tenderness for animals.

Final Journey

Willie you are on a journey that we all will take one day. We only ask that you be there for us to guide us in the right direction to our other loved ones that also passed on before us.

May Gods Angels guide you to your next destination and always remember that we all love you and will miss you.
