

Wilma Faye Boynton

April 21, 1929 - May 28, 2020

Wilma Faye Boynton, age 91, passed away peacefully at her home in Longwood surrounded by family on May 28, 2020. Wilma was born on April 21, 1929 in Randolph County, Alabama to John Otis and Annie (Towler) Johnson.

Wilma was preceded in death by her parents, six brothers, one sister and husband John. She is survived by her two daughters, Sheri Bazzle (Richard) and Anita Gentz (Michael); five grandchildren, Stephen (Courtney), Robin (Jason), Stefanie (Skip), Matthew (Amanda) and Troy (Anne); and five great-grandchildren Jacob, Grayson, Lilly, Bella, Cody.

Wilma lived an extremely full life. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Nothing brought more joy to her life than seeing the happiness in her family's lives. She enjoyed her time at their family property in Ocala on the river and also at her home in Longwood where everyone spent holidays. She spent her professional career as an administrative assistant where she thrived keeping everyone in order and together, just as she did with her family. She was the focal point of the family and the smile in the room.

In addition to her family, Wilma leaves many friends and extended family. She will be greatly missed.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Granny Nannies and VITAS for their wonderful care and compassion.

“ Wilma was always the sweetest and kindest aunt a little girl could have. She was an important part of my childhood and a part of some of my warmest memories. I believe everyone who met her adored her. Her family were lucky to have had her so close for so long and she was fortunate to be surrounded so long with their love.
