“ It was in the year 1963 while stationed at Fort Jackson, SC I was invited to travel to Orlando, Florida to visit with the family of Dan Savage, also stationed at Fort Jackson and a friend. I met his family and what a great time they showed me during this visit. Went to many places -- saw so many interesting things. Yvette and the family were such wonderful host, exciting to be around and I could not have had a better time. I will never forget Yvette's smile and that great personality. The family was so much fun. I lost track of Dan after being discharged in Jan 1964. Never forgot this family though... never forgot the joy they extended this old soldier boy. While searching the internet - I did not find Dan - but I know this is that wonderful person I met by the name of Yvette. I still have pictures of the family, pictures of her small children (the girls were all smiles just like mom). I am saddened to learn of her passing. I am posting this message to her family on May 30, 2016. It has been three years since her passing yet I hope the family will see it and know I still think of their mom and dad who were so gracious to me. Ed Barlow, 4324 Monument Ave. Richmond, VA 23230
